„ Sena, a true Diva, a Heroine of Lyrics, an explosive Mixture and Vibrant Performer.
Sena, Singer, Songwriter and Spoken Word Artist;

born in Munich Germany, raised in Europe, Sena got her name from the mother of a tribe in Ouidah, ancient Dahomé, West Africa. After traveling and living in India, Asia and the Island of Jamaica, Sena lives since 2000 in Brooklyn NY;

In the hills of Jamaica people were chanting her tunes while working, children sang them on their way to school and since quite a while you can hear her CD Natural High ( specially the tune Love won’t go away) on the Brooklyn college radio, in fact long before the CD was released, thanx to DJ , air personality and Ceo of “Long Time Running Records” Extra Strength, who was one of the very First in NYC to discover the creativity of Sena.
